LIGHTING OF THE MEMORY TREE

Minister: Rev. Karen Lumley

A special thanks to all who participated this evening.

Jocelyn House is located at 177 Egerton Road in Winnipeg. It is in a beautiful home in a beautiful setting. It was the dream of Jocelyn Hutton to add life the final days for the terminally ill, and their loved ones, by providing care and comfort in a home-like setting. It is a place of comfort and care where people are surrounded by love and each day is lived to its fullest. One of our members Helga Anderson spent her last days there and shared with us how she loved it there in her new and last home. This is the living legacy of our Memory Tree.
